

Art History Inspired Project

Rubric

Part 1 Artwork

Excellent (90-100 pts): The artwork is highly accurate, detailed, and shows a strong connection to the chosen artwork. The size is no smaller than 8.5" x 11" and shows mastery of the chosen medium.

Good (80-89 pts): The artwork is mostly accurate and shows some connection to the chosen artwork. The size is no smaller than 8.5" x 11" and shows proficiency in the chosen medium.

Satisfactory (70-79 pts): The artwork is somewhat inaccurate and shows little connection to the chosen artwork. The size is no smaller than 8.5" x 11" but lacks proficiency in the chosen medium.

Needs Improvement (below 70 pts): The artwork is inaccurate and shows little to no connection to the chosen artwork. The size is smaller than 8.5" x 11" and shows limited proficiency in the chosen medium.

Part 2 Written Description

Excellent (90-100 pts): The written description demonstrates a thorough understanding of the chosen artwork or artist, and includes all required information, such as the title, year, medium, style, and location. The description also effectively uses the four-step process of looking, describing, thinking, and connecting.

Good (80-89 pts): The written description demonstrates an adequate understanding of the chosen artwork or artist, and includes most required information, but may not effectively use the four-step process.

Satisfactory (70-79 pts): The written description demonstrates a limited understanding of the chosen artwork or artist and is missing required information or does not effectively use the four step process.

Intro to Art
SUNY Orange

Needs Improvement (below 70 pts): The written description demonstrates a poor understanding of the chosen artwork or artist and is missing significant required information and does not effectively use the four-step process.