NOTES:

COURSE ACTIVITIES AND ASSIGNMENTS

THREE TESTS (including the final)

Typically, these tests include an image identification portion, a definition segment, and a comparison and contrast of images. The final is to be completed in the same amount of time and manner as the previous two tests.

RESEARCH PAPER (3-5 pages)

No less than three pages. This is a format specific paper. Talk to professor about format options. This is done in order to empower students to embrace critical thinking and collegiate literacy skills. Students will personally choose a subject from required text book, and within the span of our curriculum. The papers are to include a thesis, introductory paragraph, the main body of the text and a strong and supported conclusion (re-iteration of thesis). Papers must employ the MLA style (or any other style previously approved by professor), be type written, 12 point type, in Times Roman font, double spaced, with a works cited page, cover sheet. Any paper not properly footnoted will receive a zero. Last minute panic appointments are not granted. The paper is to include appropriate photocopied images (properly labeled by title date, period / style, medium and artist) that support the thesis of each paper. These images are to be integrated into the body of the text but do not count toward the page requirement. At least three scholarly sources are to be cited in each paper: at least one Internet site, at least one book and at least one periodical/magazine. All Internet sources are to be attached. The student should use appropriate terminology that will be presented with-in curriculum and in required text. Students are required to get topic approval for their research paper via a topic form. do not delay in starting this assignment and do not proceed without discussing your topic first! SUNY Orange employs Turnitin.com, which can identify plagiarism in a variety of ways. You will be asked to submit an electronic version of your work on Brightspace.

Please note

Assignments not completed and handed in by the scheduled due date will be reduced one letter grade for each class period the assignment is late. Mid-semester Grades: Instructors must submit, for all students whose work is of less than "C" quality, mid-semester progress reports indicating that progress to date has been unsatisfactory.

READING ASSIGNMENTS/CLASS PARTICIPATION

Students will relate to the historic material presented and discussed in class by creating an intrinsic basis for knowledge. ALL STUDENTS ARE EXPECTED TO PARTICIPATE in these in class discussions.

EXTRA CREDIT

Work may be arranged for this course provided you are attending class regularly and completing course content in a timely fashion. If you wish to pursue extra credit work, discuss the possibility as soon as possible with the professor. All work must be completed on or before end of semester.

MAKE-UP POLICY

Due to the nature of the tests, there will be NO makeup tests or assignment extensions given unless previous arrangements have been made with the professor or official verification of illness is provided.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

Since this is an image-based curriculum and image identification takes place during class meetings, students are expected to attend class regularly. Excessive absence without discussion with the professor or written verification of illness, etc., will result in a reduction of the student's grade. More than two absences will be considered excessive. In the event of excessive absence from class, the student's final grade will be lowered by one half-letter grade per absence. Further, when a student is absent from class it is the student's responsibility to obtain class notes and handouts from a classmate. Students may be withdrawn from a course for excessive absence. Students may be absent for religious observance without penalty; however, arrangements to make up missing work, examinations, etc. must be made with the instructor in advance. If illness, accident, or similar circumstances make it impossible for a student to attend three or more classes, it is the student's responsibility to notify the Office of Records and Registration at once and to contact the instructor to make up missed work and discuss penalties.

Instructors shall not penalize students for absences for religious observance, military obligations or jury duty. You should inform the instructor when you anticipate an absence for any of these reasons so that arrangements can be made for make-up examinations or other work.

TARDINESS

Arriving late to class is disruptive. Classes begin promptly on time do not be late. Students who are late will be marked absent. Excessive absences will result in grade reduction of one letter grade.

OFFICIAL WITHDRAWAL FROM COURSE

When a student finds it necessary to withdraw from one or more courses, they must submit an Add/Drop Form with appropriate signatures by the end of the 12th week or its equivalent (see Registration Calendar). A student who officially withdraws from a course between the 4th and 12th weeks or their equivalent will have the course appear on his/her transcript with a grade of W. For more information, visit <https://sunyorange.edu/registrar/index.html> or email: registrar@sunyorange.edu

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION OR POLICIES- PROFESSOR'S NOTE

This course is designed to cover an extraordinary amount of work in a sixteen-week program. We will examine lots of images; discuss a multiplicity of materials, techniques and mediums. To accomplish the task effectively, we must all cooperate. Students are invited to offer observations, ask questions relevant to the lecture and share insights throughout the semester however; the class is directed to observe common communication decency. That is, to listen while others are speaking, including the professor. Disruptive behavior will not be tolerated and students who engage in such behavior will be directed to leave the class. TWR 306 is an intimate space; students are urged to take complete notes of each lecture paying particular attention to the images that correspond to your text. All test questions will be taken from your text unless otherwise noted. If a student misses a class, it is her or his responsibility to obtain all notes and handouts from another student NOT THE PROFESSOR.

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

Per Academic Policy: Academic dishonesty is regarded by the College as an intolerable breach of academic ethics and deserves immediate penalty. The consequences of academic dishonesty may include academic penalties, disciplinary action, or even legal action. The primary responsibility for dealing with academic dishonesty rests with the faculty member. The definition of academic dishonesty in the College's "Code of Student Conduct" includes, but is not limited to: (a) cheating; (b) fabrication; (c) facilitating academic dishonesty; (d) plagiarism; (e) forgery; (f) bribery; or (g) multiple submissions (submitting the same assignment to more than one instructor without the permission of the instructors).

Depending on the specific circumstances, academic penalties could range from a verbal reprimand to separation from the College. For some acts of academic dishonesty, the student may also be accountable to legal authorities.

When plagiarism, cheating or some other act of academic dishonesty has occurred, the faculty member shall advise the student of the action to be taken. In addition, any instance of academic dishonesty may result in the referral to the Vice President for Student Services for appropriate disciplinary action pursuant to the College's Code of Student Conduct.

Vaccination and Booster: The SUNY Vaccine Policy mandating COVID-19 vaccinations for students with a physical presence on campus remains in effect for the Spring 2024 semester. For the Spring 2024 semester, COVID vaccine boosters are not required; however, the requirement for a booster may be imposed at any time as a result of changes in local conditions or federal/state/local requirements. Please see the COVID-19 response plan for more details.
